District council more than doubles pleasure boat owner's concession

ANDERS LARSSON
anderson@viewnews.co.uk

A SEATON pleasure boat owner says an increased East Devon District Council (EDDC) concession fee constitutes "financial intimidation", which prevents him from running his business.

EDDC has defended the increase, saying the previous fee was set a long time ago and was no longer at a realistic level.

Brian Sanderson, pictured below, has operated boats from Axmouth and Seaton beaches for several years, offering sightseeing and fishing trips.

He lost his boat in a storm during winter 2013/14, but has now acquired a new one.

parking, electricity to run the winch and running water to clean the vessel with.

Whatever little revenue I bring in will be lost
- Brian Sanderson

"I left Beer and moved to Seaton in 2005 and in that time the council has offered absolutely no facilities whatsoever in relation to my concession.

"An increase of 400 per cent is not going to influence anyone to apply for a concession.

"If the council was to put some facilities on Seaton beach, then there would be some basis for a very moderate increase in fees.

"I fear that if there is no resolution to this, I will have to think very seriously of terminating my concession on Seaton beach - and whatever little revenue I bring in will be lost to both myself and Seaton.

"Even with one boat on Seaton beach, it is still an attraction and still brings tourism revenue into Seaton."

He had not received a reply at the time of going to press, but in a direct statement to Pulman's View from Seaton & Colyton, a council spokesperson said: "Mr Sanderson has submitted an application for a new concession to operate a passenger boat from Seaton beach.

"As part of the process, the concession fee was compared to other concession fees charged both at Seaton and other beaches in the district.

"The previous fee paid by Mr Sanderson was set several years ago and is no longer considered a realistic charge.

"The proposed concession would allow Mr Sanderson to operate a business from Seaton beach all year round and as such the proposed fee, which equates to £50 per month, is not considered excessive."

Enterprise Zone plan a 'win-win' for business in East Devon

Cllr Paul Diviani

AN 'enterprise zone' between Exeter and East Devon has moved a step closer after Devon County Council and East Devon District Council agreed a deal in principal.

The two council signed a Memorandum of Understanding to establish the partnership and the creation of the enterprise zone has been called a "win-win" by East Devon District Council Leader Paul Diviani.

Each council discussed the memorandum at their respective cabinet meetings and agreed the move which would boost business across four sites - Skypark, Science Park, Cranbrook town centre and the Airport Business Park extension.

The Exeter and East Devon Enterprise Zone would be in place for 25 years and worth an estimated £10m per year.

The zone would provide a range of incentives to attract and support businesses that are setting up or growing, including a five-year business rate reduction funded by the Government which could be worth up to £275,000.

£275,000

Business rate reduction for businesses financed by the Government

Additional business rates generated from within the zone will be reinvested locally to further support economic growth. This will help to ensure the future success of the zone alongside working with partners such as the Heart of the South West LEP.

The councils also approved a Business Rates Relief Policy in order to avoid any potential negative impacts.

The policy ensures that only those businesses that are genuinely expanding can relocate to the zone and safeguards against the potential for companies to be displaced from other parts of the county. Existing businesses in Devon would need to provide evidence that there is no appropriate expansion space available at their current sites.

For those businesses already trading in the zone, they would receive discretionary rate relief if they are looking for larger premises to expand their turnover or workforce or both.

Councillor Andrew Leadbetter, Devon County Council Cabinet Member for Economy and Growth, said: "Enterprise Zones are useful for supporting the development of new jobs and businesses by attracting inward investment. As landowner of Skypark and Science Park, Devon County Council has a role to ensure these sites benefit from potential funding. The designation of the Enterprise Zone has the potential to accelerate growth through the delivery of key sites in the Growth Point and developing centres of excellence."

Councillor Diviani, said: "The Exeter and East Devon Enterprise Zone is a 'Win-Win'. It further enhances our attractiveness to businesses and investors whilst giving us local control to reinvest the funds raised to further promote growth right here. The Memorandum of Understanding and related policies then also provides us with the framework and reassurance that all partners will be better off as a result of the creation of the Enterprise Zone."

Steve Hindley, Chair of the Heart of the South West Local Enterprise Partnership (HotSW LEP) added: "Having announced the successful Heart of the South West Enterprise Zone (EZ) bid to government in November last year, we are delighted that Devon and East Devon Councils are driving this project forward."

Both East Devon District Council and Devon County Council and partner agencies will now continue work on the implementation plan for the zone, before it is signed off with the Heart of the South West Local Enterprise Partnership.

The Heart of the South West LEP is a voluntary partnership between local authorities and businesses and is looking to devolve power from Whitehall to local authorities in Devon and Somerset.

Schoolboy ran away because he was 'bored with his life'

HEART-BROKEN PARENTS APPEAR ON NATIONAL TV IN COME-HOME PLEA

Anders Larsson
Chief Reporter

The contents of missing 15-year-old Membury boy Arthur Heeler-Frood's letter to his parents have been revealed on national television.

His parents, Jeremy and Caroline Heeler-Frood, appeared on ITV's This Morning on Tuesday last week.

They described his disappearance as "baffling" and repeated a heartfelt plea for their son to get in touch and let them know he is OK.

Their appearance marked the ninth week since

Arthur disappeared from his home in Membury, near Axminster.

The letter, read out by presenter Holly Willoughby, said: "To mum and dad. I have run away because I am bored of my life."

"Please do not try to find me or make me come home."

"I don't know how long I will be away for but it won't be longer than a year."

"You will find my school uniform in a bin bag in a small barn in the field on the green down the road at Membury Church."

"My bike is chained to the fence and there is a spare key to the lock of the window."

"Please apologise to the restaurant and tell them that I will no longer be able to work there."

"I know you will be upset but please understand that I have to do this."

"From Arthur."

His mother explained to viewers that Arthur might have been feeling a bit anxious because his sister had just started university and he wasn't looking forward to being at home on his own.

The 15-year-old had an amount of cash when he left home, but did not take his passport, phone or bank card.

Arthur went missing after leaving his family home in the morning of Tuesday, September 6th and failed to turn up at Colyton Grammar School.

He is described as white, 5ft 4in tall, of slight build with short, light brown hair.

Arthur may now have considerably shorter hair, possibly shaven.

Police wish to hear from anyone who may have employed, accommodated, or transported Arthur over the last nine weeks.

If you have information, please contact police by calling 101 or emailing 101@dc.police.uk quoting log 255 of September 14th.

◆ Social media giant Facebook is now helping police. Reports in national media said that Facebook refused to help with the investigation, citing privacy concerns, and Arthur's parents were quoted saying they wrote to Facebook about six times asking for details of his Facebook activity just before he disappeared, to no avail.

It has been suggested that Arthur's Facebook account has been active since his disappearance although he left his smartphone at home.

Devon and Cornwall Police is reported to have confirmed that Facebook has declined requests to investigate Arthur's social media activity. But when asked by Pulman's View on Monday morning, Devon and Cornwall Police issued a statement saying: "Devon and Cornwall Police have contacted Facebook and they are assisting with enquiries."

Facebook was under increasing pressure to cooperate. MP John Mann (Lab), who serves on the Treasury Select Committee, and former Home Secretary Jack Straw were amongst people to criticise Facebook and demand a change of policy.

Archbishop meets Chard mums

Peter Hodges
Chard reporter

The Archbishop of Canterbury paid a visit to Chard last week and met with local users of the new @StMary's Centre, spending time finding out about the highly regarded facility.

The Most Reverend Justin Welby, the most senior Bishop of the worldwide Anglican Communion, has been visiting the Diocese of Bath and Wells recently and met with mothers and midwives at the community run project at St Mary's Church.

The centre was opened earlier this year and is the home to the Call the Midwife service that provides a vital support network for local women.

The centre was opened after Vicar, the Reverend Sue Tucker, heard that Chard midwife Becky Scott was looking for a location for a dedicated centre for her work with parents, mums to be and to promote sexual health among young people. In addition to the services for families, it now hosts classes to teach English as a second language to town residents from Poland and Portugal.

@St Mary's is based in the former school house in the grounds of St Mary's Church and has been completely refurbished to provide a modern kitchen, community room, office space for midwifery and church needs and toilet facilities.

Axminster Country Market

Advertiser's Announcement

AXMINSTER Country Market is combining the annual Christmas produce taster day with craft making demonstrations. The craft makers will be showing some of their skills which include quilling, and the art of Kumihimo jewellery making. All our craft makers will be on hand to talk to visitors about their crafts whilst demonstrating their techniques.

Country Markets demand a very high standard from all their producers who must work within strict guidelines to ensure quality and product safety. Visitors to the market are often surprised to find little gems which include seaside hut pictures, paper flowers, painted vases, amazing quilts especially for children a huge variety of handmade cards, tea cosies (now so fashionable once again), and all sorts of children's wear, knitted items and lavender bags to name but a few.

The annual tasters of Christmas cake, pudding and mince pie will also take place that day. The choice of boozy, lighter, vegetarian, iced, fruit glazed marzipanned plain or even gluten free in some cases, will be available to help you make your choice of festive fare.

Are you looking for Christmas gifts with a difference without postage or travelling costs? Look no further, come and meet the experts on Thursday, November 24th at the Masonic Hall Between 8.30 am and noon.

Colyton students impress at literary festival's poetry slam

YEAR 9 students at Colyton Grammar School recently took part in the first ever poetry slam of the 2016 Budleigh Salterton Literary Festival.

A poetry slam is the competitive art of performance poetry. It puts a dual emphasis on writing and performance, encouraging poets to focus on what they're saying and how they're saying it. These performances are usually judged by selected members of the audience or by a panel of judges.

The four Colyton students – Joshua Gleave, Grace Stephens, Romilly Spaul and Olivia Petrini (pictured above), all aged 13 – were first tutored by professional poetry slammers John Paul O'Neill and Maddy Sakahini. The participants worked in pairs to compose a poem with the aid of a given stimulus.

Joshua and Grace were the overall winners of the Budleigh Salterton Literary Festival Poetry Slamm performing in front of over 150 people.

Romilly and Olivia also did a super job with their poetry and performance.

English teacher Suzie Bean said: "I am tremendously proud of all four students involved. They worked very co-operatively and imaginatively, produced some stunning poetry and conquered their nerves to perform confidently and with feeling."

Cancer Research coffee morning raises £850

A COFFEE morning in aid of the Colyton and Colyford branch of Cancer Research UK (pictured above) raised £850 on Saturday. The event was held in Colyton Town Hall where supporters enjoyed refreshments and a variety of stalls. Committee member Jean Love described the total raised as a "wonderful result", adding: "Thank you to all who donated gifts to our stalls, made donations, those who attended the event and to all who helped on the day."

Meeting on new play area

CHILDREN and families from Colyton are invited to an open meeting on Friday, November 18th to choose their favoured design for a new play area in the village.

Children will be able to vote for their favourite from five designs put forward for the play area, which will be built on land off Whitwell Lane.

The meeting will be held from 7pm in Colyford Memorial Hall and will include entertainment by Raffle Box Theatre.

Learn to cook healthy meals for one

THE next Health and Local Food for Families (HALFF) cooking for one class will be held on Tuesday, November 22nd.

Classes are held in the United Reformed Church Hall, Cross Street, Seaton, and the aim is to support people living alone with simple, healthy cookery demonstrations and a monthly newsletter.

HALFF's Laura O'Rourke said: "Get time-saving hints and tips to make cooking for one more enjoyable, plus learning more about what you eat, nutrition, food preparation and budgeting."

"There is no need to book, just come along, meet new people and taste what has been prepared before you head home."

To find out more, email laura@halff.org.uk, visit www.halff.org.uk or call 01297 631782.

Scouts and Guides to deliver Christmas cards

Each card costs 30p, with all donations going to the Scouts, Guides and Rotary charities.

New web site for Devon forces families proving a big hit with nearly 3,000 visits

NEARLY 3,000 visits have been made to a new web site for Devon's military service leavers, veterans, reservists and their families in the first four months since its launch.

The most visited web pages have been for information about housing, support for military families, about employment, and health matters.

The Devon Forces Family web site – www.devonforcesfamily.org.uk – was launched in July by Devon County Council as an online directory of services, a one-stop-shop, and supports all people connected with the armed forces.

It's been developed in consultation with veterans and professionals working with people in the armed forces.

It has been produced partly in response to a review in 2014, a Health Needs Assessment, that found that while most of the 107,000 veterans living in Devon made smooth transitions into civilian life, about 15 per cent have a complex mix of physical and mental health needs.

This can affect family life and has sometimes led to offending behaviour and imprisonment.

It's long been recognised that people in the armed forces, and their families, experience a unique set of factors as a consequence of their time in the services, which carry through to civilian life.

Risks to life or of injury, as well as armed services' lifestyle of frequent moves and disruption, all have an impact on individuals and their families.

A lack of familiarity about civilian services, and in some cases stigma, also prevents many veterans and their families from accessing health care, finding suitable housing, gaining employment or joining social groups.

Former serviceman and Devon County Councillor, Roger Croad, Lead Member for the Armed Forces Covenant, said: "It's interesting that the most visited web pages since the launch of the web site are for information about housing, support for families, employment and health matters.

"It's a measure, in a crude way, of what some of the major challenges are for people who have come out of the armed forces, and reservists, and their families, as they adjust to civilian life.

"It's right that we remember all those, living, as well as those who have given their lives for our country, and recognise the difficulties that their experiences have left them and their families.

"Information and support available to the Armed Forces Community has sometimes not been easy to find, and listed across various websites.

"Through this dedicated website, we hope to make it quick and easy for our military service leavers, veterans, reservists and their families in Devon, Plymouth and Torbay, to access the services and support they need, and ultimately improve their health and well-being."

The web site is funded by the Armed Forces Community Covenant Fund, which is a promise from the nation to all those who serve.

It says that we as a nation will do all we can to ensure that people in, or who have left the Armed Forces, and their families, are treated fairly and are not disadvantaged in their day-to-day lives.

A short video to promote the website is available at www.facebook.com/Devon-Forces-Family-1122979381057516

■ NOT TAXING: Ian McMurtry managed to make taxation entertaining

▲ ALZHEIMER'S Research UK benefitted to the tune of £280 from a business breakfast and fundraiser at Cricket St Thomas Golf Club. The event was organised by Scott Rowe Solicitors and attracted business people from South Somerset, East Devon and West Dorset on Thursday, November 3rd. Scott Rowe director Carinna Parsons welcomed the guests, who were treated to a talk on changes to taxation by Ian McMurtry of Thomas Westcott Chartered Accountants and a presentation by James Warren of Alzheimer's Research UK. Speaking after the event, Scott Rowe assistant practice manager Racheal Rattenbury said that £280 had been raised. She also thanked those who attended and supported the charity.

Composting groups could be hit if recycling changes are agreed

COMMUNITY composting groups will be hit if proposed changes at Devon County Council household waste recycling centres are agreed.

The council has begun a public consultation, and a spokesperson said: "The changes include length restrictions on vehicles using the sites, charging for the disposal of all plastic construction and demolition DIY waste and an amendment to the list of non-acceptable wastes.

"Changes are also proposed to ensure that the amount DCC pays community groups to compost waste is comparable with the authority's own composting costs."

Currently, discretionary recycling credits are paid to 25 community composting groups across the county. This scheme avoids the waste being composted by the council and provides a useful material which is used as a soil conditioner.

Currently the credit rate varies from £49-£58 per tonne depending on the volume composted but, from April 2017, the council proposes a lower rate in line with the national average of £25 per tonne.

Councillor Roger Croad, Devon County Council's Cabinet Member for the Environment, said: "We, of course, want to continue to support community groups but it is hard to justify continuing to pay a higher rate to community groups when the council could manage this waste more cheaply."

The consultation is available online at <https://new.devon.gov.uk/haveyoursay>

REMEMBRANCE Sunday saw Axminster residents pay their respects to those who made the ultimate sacrifice.

A big crowd awaited on Minster Green as the parade arrived, having started from South Street Car Park.

The parade included two serving members of the Armed Forces – Aircraft Engineering Technician Richard York Royal Navy and Lance Corporal Oliver Clark of 1st Battalion Rifles.

Just as last year, wreaths were laid before the service of remembrance in the Minster Church.

Axminster Royal British Legion member Mervyn Symes read the names of the fallen.

The exhortation was delivered by Axminster RBL president Ken Brake and the Kohima Epitaph by former branch president John Granvill-Smith.

The congregation moved into the Minster Church for a civic service of remembrance taken by The Reverend Geoffrey Walsh, Chaplain of the Axminster RBL branch.

Christmas at Axe Cliff Golf Club

AXE Cliff Golf Club has spent the last two years transforming the course into its former glory. In the last 12 months it has also concentrated on its clubhouse lunches, dinners and extending its wine, beer and cider selections. Set on the cliffs above Axmouth Harbour, Axe Cliff Golf Club offers the perfect blend of stunning views, friendly and down to earth Devon hospitality and great value for money. The club is very well known for its friendly and relaxed hospitality, offering reasonably priced, good quality home-cooked food, in a comfortable and welcoming Clubhouse. As a consequence, the number of visitors enjoying light lunches from just £5 a head has quadrupled. The coffee wholesaler has been so pleased with the increase in sales that a new machine has been installed to provide the same coffee ranges as all the corporate coffee shops use. Linda Ledingham who is in charge of catering commented that "when new visitors arrive they are often surprised at the range of choice and that coffee starts from just £1.50".

Axe Cliff are keen to promote both the health benefits of golf and the great social atmosphere of the club. Just to give a sample of what goes on; we have vouchers available at £25 for a coffee or tea on arrival, 18 holes of golf and a meal with a beer or a wine afterwards. Also an ideal Christmas present!

The Club has numerous events throughout the year offering food and entertainment to members and non-members. On Friday 25th November we will be holding a Bingo Night. On the night we are offering a meal deal, a table of four, two courses plus a bottle of wine is only £15.00 per person. On December 4th is the Variety Night where members tread the boards, sing, dance and generally entertain at varying levels of competence. The tickets are £7.50 each including food but will be in short supply when this goes to print. An enjoyable night is always busy with both public and members so book early. Phone now to book a table 01297 21754.

Once again for 2016 we are offering a sumptuous Christmas Lunch and Dinner Menu for private parties and group bookings. You can collect a copy from the club or email for a digital version. Our Christmas Menu bookings will be available from 30th November to 23rd December. If you would like to make a booking for your family party or works function call 01297 21754 or email: bookingsaxecliff@gmail.com.

Taking care of our older pets

DO YOU own a dog or a cat that is over 9 years old?

Like us, as dogs and cats grow older, they are at an increased risk of developing common age-related diseases, such as:

- Cancer
- Kidney Disease
- Diabetes mellitus
- Dental disease
- Arthritis
- Heart disease
- Mental confusion
- Hyperthyroidism (cats)

Animals that are developing arthritis, for example, may be more reluctant to jump or run and you may see changes in their normal behaviour, such as sleeping in unusual positions and uncharacteristic grumpiness!

Other signs of illness can be; increased or decreased appetite or drinking, weight loss or gain. Signs of disease can develop slowly over a period of time and sometimes go unnoticed. Early detection of these diseases mean steps can be taken to slow their progression and promote a good quality of life in old age. When diabetes and hyperthyroidism are caught early, they can be treated effectively for many years. Signs of kidney failure only start to show when 75% of the animal's kidneys have been destroyed, so the earlier this is diagnosed, the more of the kidney function can be saved.

If you feel that your older pet would benefit from a check up, call your veterinary practice. Most practices will offer a 'Free Creaky clinic' with a nurse, when your pet can be examined for signs of disease, including urine test and blood pressure measurements.

Complimentary services such as Physiotherapy and Hydrotherapy are often used to help our Oldies lead happier and more comfortable lives.

RESIDENTS in Chard paid their respects to those that have fallen in war as the town came together for Remembrance Sunday.

Local organisations and members of the public crammed into St Mary's church yard as the Reverend Sue Tucker led the service and read the Roll of Honour. Royal British Legion chairman John Gudge delivered the Exhortation and the Kohima Epitaph before joining with other local organisations and charities to lay their wreaths at the war memorial.

Before the service, a parade through the town took place, made up of Army and Airforce cadets, the Royal British Legion as well as children from the Scouts, Cubs, Beavers, Girl Guides and Rainbows.

● In Crewkerne, events started with a parade along Severalls Park Avenue to the memorial of the Tommy Soldier for a short service. Wreaths were also laid at the war memorial outside St Bartholomew's Church followed by a service inside led by the Reverend Stuart Huntley.

Chairman of the Crewkerne Royal British Legion, Tony Samuel, delivered the Exhortation at both war memorials and the Kohima Epitaph was delivered by committee member Terry Austin.

■ PARADING down New Street

ST PAUL'S Church in Honiton was, as usual, full for the Remembrance Sunday service as residents of the town came to pay their respects.

The commemoration started with an impressive parade from New Street Car Park to the church, under the supervision of Parade Master Mick Robson.

The church service was jointly taken by The Reverend Prebendary Sue Roberts and chaplain to Honiton Royal British Legion The Reverend Jane Lankester.

The exhortation and Kohima Epitaph were delivered by Honiton Royal British Legion chairman Chris Sinden.

Following the service, the congregation gathered at the war memorial outside the church and wreaths were laid by: Honiton Royal British Legion, Honiton Town Council, East Devon

District Council, MP Neil Parish, HM Armed Forces (AFD Committee), The Rifles, British Korean Veterans' Association, The Devonshire Regiment, Devon and Dorset Regiment, The Royal Air Forces Association, Devon and Cornwall Police, Devon and Somerset Fire and Rescue Service, Honiton Detachment A Coy Army Cadet Force, 1064 (Honiton) Squadron Air training Corps, 1st Honiton Scout Group, The Honiton Guides Association, Honiton Twinning Association, Honiton Fortescue No.847 Masonic Lodge, Honiton Senior Citizens, Honiton & District Chamber of Commerce, Honiton & District Lions Club, Honiton Round Table, Rotary International, The WI, Devon Freewheelers, Honiton Twirlstars and Honiton & District Canine Society.

■ THE parade en route

COLYTON marked Remembrance Sunday with its annual church service and wreath laying ceremony.

The service was held in St Andrew's Church, during which the congregation observed a two minutes' silence and heard the Exhortation and Kohima Epitaph.

Following the service, the congregation gathered around the war memorial in the church grounds where wreaths were laid on behalf of the Royal British Legion, police, fire service, St John Ambulance, the 1st Colyton Scouts, Colyton Parish Council and the Colyton Chamber of Feoffees.

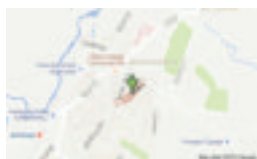

The town also marked Armistice Day on Friday with a two minutes' silence around the war memorial, attended by many residents and children from Colyton Primary School.

■ MIKE Gurton, chairman of the Colyton branch of the Royal British Legion, lays a wreath on the war memorial

■ MEMBERS of the 1st Colyton Scout Group lay their wreath

■ LOCAL Scouts were among those paying their respects in Beer.

Peter Anderson and Richard Scott read out all the names of the men and women from Beer who died in both world wars, while Yvonne Hawker read the epitaph. The Rev Jeremy Trew took the service at St Michael's.

SEATON residents gathered at the war memorial at St Gregory's Church to honour the fallen on Remembrance Sunday.

The names of the fallen were read by Seaton Royal British Legion member Ann Roberts, the exhortation was delivered by a local boy scout and Poppy Appeal organiser Alison King read the names of organisations laying wreaths.

The Reverend John Holder took the following remembrance service in the church during which another local scout gave the Kohima Epitaph.

Seaton Royal British Legion vice-chairman Maurice Ayling said afterwards: "It was very well attended. We would like to thank everyone who turned out."

RESIDENTS of Ottery St Mary paid their respects to those that lost their lives in combat at Sunday's Remembrance Service.

The service was led by the Reverend Stephen Weston in front of a packed congregation and the exhortation and Kohima Epitaph were read by Hazel Adley.

Following the service, the congregation left the church and gathered around the war memorial for the laying of the wreaths.

Representatives of the Scouts, the town council, armed forces and other local organisations were all invited to lay a wreath.

■ PCSO Maria Clapp lays a wreath at the war memorial and (above) Ottery St Mary mayor and deputy mayor, Cllrs Glyn Dobson and Ian Holmes, arrive on Sunday. Cllr Dobson laid the wreath on behalf of the council

ILMINSTER honoured the fallen as the town joined with local organisations and the council to pay tribute on Remembrance Sunday.

The service at The Minster was led by Reverend Nigel Done as the church was packed with both young and old residents, wishing to pay their respects to the war dead.

Instead of reading the names of the fallen, each person whose name is on the war memorial is given a cross with a poppy on it which is planted in the churchyard.

The town lined the streets for the Remembrance Day Parade which saw the Air and Army Cadets, Scouts, Beavers, Girl Guides and Brownies lead the procession through the town to the church.

Following the parade, the congregation moved inside the church where John Goodall read the Exhortation and Psalm 98 was read by Mayor of Ilminster, Cllr Val Keith.

Following the service, the wreaths were laid on the war memorial before the parade reformed and left the church back through the town.

Hat trick for Chris at Beer show

CHRIS Loud was the big winner of Beer & District Horticultural Society's 33rd annual autumn show at the Mariners' Hall, writes KEVIN FAHEY.

Mr Loud, who lives in Whitford, won three prizes for his Charm Chrysanthemums – Best in Show, Best Shape and Best Visitor.

He said: "I have won the overall champion's cup a few times in the past going back to 1984, but haven't done the Beer show for a few years now."

"I am delighted to come back and win it again."

Loud's superb Charms were certainly the talk of the show and not far behind was local resident Dave Mutter, who won the prize for the Best Beer Charm.

Mike Gardner was delighted to pick up the Novice Cup while Barbara Greaves and three-year-old Imogen Heard, easily the youngest entrant in the show, won the photo awards for seniors and juniors respectively.

Horticultural society chairman John Lang won two cups for the Best Vase of Chrysanthemums and Most Points and Keith Legg got the cup for the Best Pot Mums.

Volunteers are a splash hit

THE Beer Volunteers showed that they aren't afraid to get their hands dirty – or their feet wet!

With parish councillors Mo Westlake and Mandy Graham leading from the front, a large group of local residents turned up to continue the clearing of Starre Bank and the brook that flows down into Fore Street – an iconic feature of the seaside village.

"It all started last year when people helped to clear the brook and I got together a register of volunteers and let people know when they can turn up," said Mo.

"We have around 20 on the register and clearing up the brook we have had around eight people helping and they have done a great job."

Such has been the success of the clean-up scheme that Mo has appealed for extra tools to go around all the volunteers.

"The Beer Volunteers would be grateful for any donations of old or no longer needed garden tools in reasonable condition," added Mo.

"We are looking for rakes, hoes, shovels, brooms, forks and pick axes, garden shears and secateurs, while other small tools like hammers and saws are also useful."

If anyone wishes to donate some tools please call Mo Westlake on 01297 23850.

Knitted poppies a big hit

HOMEMADE knitted poppies proved to be a big hit in Beer in the lead-up to Remembrance Sunday.

Local resident Soux White made 30 of the poppies last year and they sold out so quickly that she vowed to come back with even more for 2016.

"I actually made around 115 this year and there are very few left," said Soux.

The knitted poppies were just one item on sale to help raise funds for the Royal British Legion with wristbands, enamel pins and the conventional poppies also on offer from the team of volunteers led by Peter and Sylvie Anderson.

"One little girl asked how much an enamel pin would cost and I told her it was a donation and she offered me all her pocket money," added Soux.

"To my mind that was the biggest donation. That really touched me."

New status for golf club

AXE Cliff Golf Club has achieved Community Amateur Sports Club (CASC) status.

Lease holders Jill and Simon Wellington says CASC status is an added boost that will help them take the club to the next level.

They praised staff, members and volunteers for helping them out during what they describe as a 'roller-coaster ride'.

CASC status means mandatory business rate relief, Gift Aid on donations and certain corporation tax benefits.

The scheme was introduced in 2002 as an option for sports clubs to register with HMRC to receive charity-type tax reliefs provided certain criteria are met.

As previously reported, Jill and Simon had just joined the club when it came close to closure in 2014.

They ended up as the new lease holders and have put in both time and money to get the club back on track.

Both admit it has been a struggle at times, but Mr Wellington said: "We feel we are going in the right direction."

Mr Wellington added: "The overall message is that we have every other aspect operating much as we would like it, with plenty of playing visitors and golf societies."

"On the club side we have hikers stopping off the Jurassic walk for refreshments, as well as townsfolk driving up for light lunches. Our online reviews have been superb both on and off the course.

"The course looks fantastic now and the members and staff have always been complimented on their friendliness."

"All the raw materials, including the location, are set and ready."

"We have got that side of it right but none of that can fully make up for golf memberships."

"With 140 full members we are competing against clubs the same size as ours who all have a minimum of 450 full golf members each and they still have to carefully balance the books!"

"We have asked Binden Estate (the landlord) to treat us with 'kid gloves' whilst we try to make the club viable again."

One of the highlights this year was the club's annual ladies open, which usually attracts about 40 players.

But the Wellingtons and their team were taken by surprise this year and forced to act with short notice.

Mr Wellington said that about 100 players came, and added: "We had to close off the applications."

"We have room in our club house for around 50-60 people, so we had to buy a marquee for all the extra competitors."

Probus Clubs

AXMINSTER by Paul Martin

BOB Musgrave returned to Axminster Probus Club to tell their November meeting more of the fascinating facts he has discovered about inn signs.

As the Somerset representative of the Inn Sign Society, Bob has spent years recording the history of many of the 30,000 pubs in this country.

His illustrated talk on this occasion concentrated on central London where he had found a lot of familiar names along with a number of 'one offs'.

'The Marquess of Granby' is a common title because, as a leader of the British army, he donated the equivalent of £5,000,000 in today's money to help troops made redundant when forces were reduced.

Many of the ex-soldiers became publicans and named their pubs to show their gratitude.

Nell Gwynne, Nellie Dean, Marie Lloyd and Robin Hood are some of the familiar names to be found outside London pubs and Bob recounted a story for each sign he portrayed. He has been taking the photographs for a number of years, many of them using a traditional camera which required careful focussing.

On one occasion it took three reckless ventures into busy dual carriageway traffic to get his shot!

In response to a Probus member's question as to whether anyone had ever been killed by a falling sign, Bob recounted that one instance where five people were killed by one sign led to a law limiting their size, which is why they are all virtually the same size today.

● The Axminster Probus Club for retired and semi-retired business and professional men meets in a private room at the A35 Pit Stop, Gammons Hill, Kilmington on the first Tuesday of each month.

Prospective members are always welcome; for further information ring 01460 220528.

MEMBERS of the Honiton Probus Club who attended the last business meeting of 2016

were treated to a most interesting and illuminating talk by Dave Toomey and Cathy Towers on behalf of the RNIB.

They covered the implications for sufferers of sight loss – both partial and total – and with the help of audience participation showed just how difficult the simplest everyday tasks can be both for the patient and for any would be helper.

The history of the part that Louis Braille played in developing his famous system of raised dots that enable those with serious sight problems to read through touch was explained and how it was originally designed for use by the French Army during the Napoleonic Wars so that documents could be read in the dark.

A major focus of the talk was on the development and use of talking books and how this service has developed since its conception in the 1930s until the present time and the part that the development of technology has played in helping to achieve the current level of excellence of this superb service.

● The club meets on the last Thursday of each month at The Heathfield Inn in Honiton.

Anyone interested in joining Probus can call John on 01404 43392 or visit the web site www.sites.google.com/site/probushoniton/home or google Honiton Probus Club.

SEATON

MEMBERS of Seaton and District Probus Club enjoyed a very entertaining talk from Spencer Kingdon entitled 'Nearly Open All Hours'.

We heard how Mr Kingdon, his wife and three sons, came to take on a failing village shop in Uffculme, mid-Devon, following a family tragedy.

The stories he related about his experiences in the shop, and his attempts – some very successful and others less so – to turn the business into a profitable one, had his audience in fits of laughter.

They also brought back memories of a different age, in the 1960s and 70s, before the internet and mobile phones, and a time when supermarkets were much less widespread; a time of shortages and of high inflation; a time when small shops did stay open (nearly) all hours, and when shopkeepers like Mr

Kingdon did behave and look like Arkwright!

Members are looking forward to the next meeting, on Wednesday, November 16th, when Bert Sherman will be giving a talk 'Toying with my Future'.

The club is open to retired or semi-retired men and welcomes new members.

Please call either Steve on 01297 21872 or Keith on 01297 624374 for more information

AXMINSTER RBL WOMEN'S SECTION

A VISIT to the Victory Emporium in Seaton for afternoon tea and homemade cakes proved a great success with members of the Axminster RBL Women's Section.

Run by Mark Hankey and partner Sue, this new cafe provides happy memories for many members who remembered rationing, recalled old WW2 posters and other nostalgic items, particularly ex-WAAF president Audrey Lanchbery who served during the war.

Members tucked into such wonderful delights as Home Front Assam tea or Lady Churchill Earl Grey to name only a couple from a wonderful selection.

Branch president Dave Warner was seen to enjoy the Off the Ration Hot Chocolate accompanied by the deliciously decadent chocolate cake with cream. The gluten free lemon drizzle cake and the carrot cake were equally as impressive.

Following tea it was time to inspect the memorabilia both on display and for sale and visit the air raid shelter en route to the loo! So authentic – not that some of us remember air raid shelters.

All credit to Mark and Sue for an evocative and wonderful tea room where no attention to detail has been spared.

During a break in the rain Axminster members gathered in front of the shop for a photo shoot for posterity highlighting the recently won Larcombe Silver Cup awarded at the Devon County Annual Conference in Tiverton (sadly, the last one) for best small branch efficiency, the Devonshire Cup for best small branch for donations, and the East Devon Group Cup awarded for the best decorated Easter cakes.

Not to be outdone, our president stood smartly to attention wearing a WAAF cap and saluted in her own inimitable style.

All in all it was a lovely trip on a wet October afternoon. The Axminster RBL Women's Section would like to thank Mark and Sue for making them so welcome and letting them book the tea room for the whole afternoon.

Groundhog day for Harepath Road

■ I MUST be forgiven for thinking that we have done all this before. This is now the third application for the Land East of Harepath Road. The previous ones were defeated, along with the Planning Appeal by the developer.

Under the current EDDC Local Plan the Green Wedge remains protected and Seaton has now been classified as a town with 'development only inside the Built-up Area Boundary' and excepting for the LSE2 light industrial and recreational area, the proposed development is outside the designated area.

The developer hopes to sweeten his third application with the promise of 50 affordable houses. I would like to question how a development that was not viable to provide more than 25 per cent affordable housing with 172 houses, can suddenly become viable to provide 50 per cent affordable housing with only 150 houses?

Again the developer hopes to further sweeten his application by providing one football pitch and additional recreation ground. But wait, is this really what it seems? The football pitch and recreational ground is so far out of Seaton that car transport would be needed to get there. It is stated that there will be no floodlighting but how can they play football in the winter evenings without lights? The social side of life in the clubhouse may rely, now and then, on a little something from the bar and the prospect of a short walk home afterwards is much more appealing than a ride in a car from the proposed new clubhouse. For children using the recreational area, there would be inherent dangers in walking home on dark winter nights.

If this development went ahead there would be significant visual, noise and light intrusion on the area which would have a negative effect on the nearby Seaton Wetlands. As information wardens at Seaton Wetlands we are all too aware of the detrimental effect this development could have on what has become one of the biggest stars in Seaton's attractions to tourists.

If you feel as we do make your voice heard by writing to the Planning Department at The Knowle, Sidmouth quoting Ref: 15/2188/MOUT.

Airfields trust thanks

■ ON BEHALF of the South West Airfields Heritage Trust, we would very much like to thank all our supporters and members of the public who most generously helped us raise £150 at the Macmillan World's Biggest Coffee Morning.

We chose to support this event as many of our members and supporters have been going through this inflection and the reason we feel it necessary to write this letter is the remoteness of our venue.

We held the event in Smeatharpe, tucked away at the Heritage Centre in Cherry Tree Lane. So having so many people come and support us was very touching.

Thank you all for your support and generosity.
STEVE PARSONS,

Tricky little 'aitch'

■ M HEMSWORTH's letter 'Hurray for the 'an' was light relief after the serious issues concerning our NHS but I feel compelled to put the view of English scholars. I might say to a friend that we spent 'an hour at the beach'; what I would not say is that 'we spent an happy hour at the beach'. It's all down to that tricky little item known as the 'aspirate aitch'. For an example: 'an heir to a historic sight'. It's not easy and all down to pronunciation and we have our Norman forebears to blame for that. The French do not pronounce the aitch at all so that we are left with a legacy of a small number of words we also pronounce without the aspirate aitch. The easiest guide is how easy the words flow, a hotel or an hotel? The latter is, I fear, misplaced snobbery.

Change required over hospital losses

■ IT is high time to stop the ridiculous argument as to where the few available hospital beds in Devon might be placed. All this is merely covering the actuality of not only this point, but of the whole nature of the National Health Service.

The NHS was set for the people of this country by the government of Clement Atlee. But, from the last quarter of the twentieth century, later governments have artificially lowered the taxes (obviously mainly of the wealthier section of the community) by underhand selling much of the people's rights, including those of the NHS, to such people as could turn it into profit for themselves.

To try to cover themselves, the government are making life difficult for doctors, nurses and other useful staff, while covering up the incompetent (other than for self-enriching) 'owners' of the NHS.

The only honest – and possible long-term security – is for the government to take back what belongs to the people. There will be no need to pay further those who have already made themselves millions from the miseries of the sick and afflicted.

DAVID MOSELEY,
Seaton

■ 1. HOSPITAL bed-closures (Pulmans Honiton, November 1st) and the CCG document 'Your Future Care' have been PR disasters. On page 5 of the document we are told that there is going to be a financial shortfall if nothing is done, with on page 14 the cost of a hospital bed at £200-£300 per day which is money wasted if it is occupied longer than clinically needed.

2. Then on page 15 is shown that of the 1,579 acute beds, some 506 (32 per cent), are 'bed-blocked'. This looks like an annual waste of between £36M and £55M.

3. At the same time the document proposes closing 71 community beds and from page 17 treating the same 188 patients for an annual cost saving of £2.976M.

4. Clearly the most cost-effective result is to retain all 142 community beds. Fill 71 with 'bed blockers' funded by the £2.976M, to free up the acute beds as this is where the cost savings really start to kick in as well as reducing waiting times.

R NIX,
by email

■ REGARDING hospital bed losses and recent correspondences in the View From, the fact is that electors vote in governments and governments are responsible for the current situation regarding the policy of hospital beds closures. Governments make choices on what they spend our taxes on. This particular government has chosen, since 2010, to bring in tax cut after tax cut with the rises in 'giveaways' going largely to big business and the already extremely rich. To distract us from the real issue of the under spending on 'community goods' eg NHS, NH Mental Health Services, Elderly Care etc, a cynical policy of pitching communities against each other has, either by design or default, arisen.

If anyone is not happy about these hospital bed issues, complaining to the local organisations eg CCG is pointless, as they are simply the agents of change. Either the policies or the Government have to be changed.

Open days in Village Schools – come and visit

HAWKCHURCH C OF E PRIMARY SCHOOL is 6 miles from Axminster in a beautiful rural village setting with panoramic views. The school consists of 2 classes – KS1 & KS2 – with a newly opened Nursery which takes children from 2 years of age. We accept Early Years Funding from 2 years of age and non-funded hours are available.

The school joined the Two Valleys Federation in September 2016 and was inspected by Ofsted in the Autumn term and was rated as "Good". Since then, working alongside Musbury Primary and Sidmouth Primary has enhanced the teaching and learning for all children. The federation became the Genesis Academy Trust in September 2016 and both Musbury and Hawkchurch have the twin benefits of being village schools whilst enjoying the wider resources and expertise offered by the academy.

Hawkchurch children enjoy the benefits of:

- Outdoor learning – very large grounds, with access to village field for sports
- Fruit and vegetable garden, pond, wildlife area, bug hotel and a willow dome
- New library
- Close community ties, strong links with local toddler group and the church
- Popular professional guitar lessons once a week
- Various after school clubs
- Residential opportunities and trips

• Plays, concerts and celebration assemblies

• Local volunteer helpers

• Enthusiastic PTFA members

The school logo has been modernised, making sure the village rose is the prominent feature.

You are welcome to visit by appointment by telephoning Hawkchurch 01297 678331 or emailing admin@hawkchurch-primary.devon.sch.uk or come and visit on our open day on Tuesday, November 22nd. www.hawkchurch-primary.devon.sch.uk

MUSBURY PRIMARY SCHOOL enjoys an idyllic setting beside the village church. It is less than 4 miles from Axminster and Seaton, 3 miles from Colyton and less than 7 miles from Lyme Regis – so it is in a handy location.

As part of the Genesis Academy Trust, the school's pupil numbers are growing and the future is bright. Like its sister school Hawkchurch, Musbury enjoys excellent links with the local community and works alongside the Musbury Moles Pre-school group which is based on site. We are supported by many local volunteers who enhance the life of the school with their enthusiasm and knowledge of the local area.

Musbury children benefit from:

- Outdoor learning
- Various after school clubs
- Residential opportunities and trips
- Plays, concerts and celebration assemblies
- Local volunteer helpers
- Enthusiastic PTFA members
- A large playing field
- Fruit and vegetable areas
- Willow structures

• Choir

Musbury has a new image – the logo has been updated and our colour has changed to give us a smart new school uniform!

You are welcome to visit by appointment, telephone 01297 552687 or email admin@musbury-primary.devon.sch.uk or come and visit us on our open day on Wednesday, November 23rd. www.musbury-primary.devon.sch.uk

WHATEVER YOU'RE INTO, DO YOUR THING AND MAKE A HUGE DIFFERENCE!

We all have something we're good at, or something we've always fancied doing. Whatever your 'thing' is, we're here to help you turn it into a fantastic fundraiser that'll help change children's lives.

BBC Children in Need is the BBC's UK corporate charity. Thanks to the support of the public, we're able to make a real difference to the lives of children all across the UK.

Our Vision: Our vision is that every child in the UK has a childhood which is:

- Safe
- Happy and Secure
- Allows them the chance to reach their potential

What We Do: We provide grants to projects in the UK which focus on children and young people who are disadvantaged. We are local to people in all corners of the UK and support small and large organisations which empower children and extend their life choices.

Our grant programmes are open all year round for applications. We give our small grants awards four times a year and main grants three times a year.

In order to administer the Charity efficiently, fundraise creatively, manage the funds raised professionally and operate as an effective grant-maker, BBC Children in Need incurs costs.

When the Public donates a pound to BBC Children in Need, this is a pound that goes to help change the lives of disadvantaged children and young people. This includes the costs of ensuring our grants are allocated to excellent projects in communities across the UK making a tangible difference to young lives; monitoring and evaluating the project to ensure the money is being used to maximum effect and ensuring that grant making is supported, processed and governed responsibly.

History: Ever wondered how Pudsey got his name? Read about over half a century of BBC Children in Need, our annual Appeal Night telethons, and discover just how much money we'll be giving to UK charities this year.

The BBC's first ever broadcast appeal for children was a five-minute radio broadcast on Christmas Day in 1927. The response was phenomenal and it raised £1,143 18s 3d which was split between 4 prominent children's charities.

The first televised appeal was the 1955 'Children's Hour Christmas Appeal', presented by Sooty and Harry Corbett. The Christmas Day Appeals continued on TV and radio right up until 1979, raising a total of £625,836.

The presenters included Terry Hall, Eamonn Andrews, Leslie Crowther, Michael Aspel and the rising star of the Radio 2 Breakfast Show - Terry Wogan - who made his debut appearance in 1978.

In 1980 the appeal was broadcast on BBC One in a new telethon format, hosted by Terry with Sue Lawley and Esther Rantzen. The telethon was the brainchild of Mark Patterson, who went on to be the Executive Producer for nine years. It captured the public's imagination to such an extent that the donations increased dramatically and broke the million mark for the very first time.

Terry Wogan remained the telethon's mainstay until 2014, and was joined by a diverse line-up over the years that included Joanna Lumley, Sue Cook, John Craven, Andi Peters, Gaby Roslin, Natasha Kaplinsky, Tess Daly and Fearne Cotton.

Get your ears on: Channel your inner bear and sport your ears this November. However you're supporting us this year, make sure you get your ears on.

We've even got some limited edition flashing ears, available at Asda.

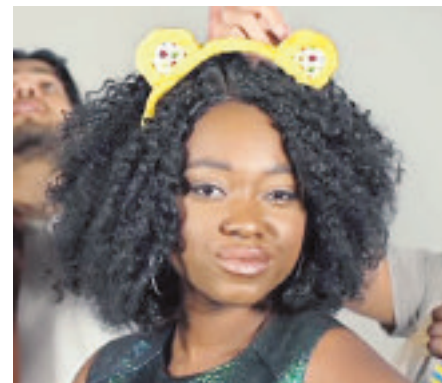

Our fundraisers and celebrity friends up and down the country are wearing theirs to show their support for Pudsey and we'd love you to join them.

FUN-FILLED NIGHT FOR ILMINSTER VICTORIAN EVENING AND CHRISTMAS LIGHTS SWITCH-ON

▲ Matt Sainsbury and his kids; Rose, Daisy and Jonathan turn on Ilminster's Christmas lights, 2014.

FRIDAY 18th November is the official start of Christmas in Ilminster, when the town's famous Christmas lights are switched during its Victorian Evening. This event has been going on for more than 25 years and is generally acknowledged to be the best Christmas event among the market towns in South Somerset.

During the day, there is a rolling programme of Christmas songs provided by local schools in the Market House. The main festivities kick off at 6.30pm with a Lantern Parade of over 100 lanterns, led by Father Christmas in his environmental-friendly eSleigh (sponsored by mobility scooter suppliers Electric Mobility - after all he is several centuries old at least). The Lantern Parade will arrive at the Market Square just before the fabulous Christmas Lights are switched on at 7.00pm. After the spectacular switch-on many of the town's shops are open offering special discounts and some will be providing a cheering Christmas drink and possibly a piece of cake. So come along and get your Christmas shopping off to a flying start. Many people combine this with checking out the brilliant Shop Window competition, this year on the theme of "A Winter Wonderland".

There will be three bands, including those from HMS Heron and the Salvation Army, several choirs, the Martock Puppets with their fun performances, a Santa's Grotto in the Ile Youth Club, a terrific Christmas Fair in the Parish Hall and other stalls in Swan Precinct.

Meanwhile the children can enjoy a large fun fair with many rides and there will be great hot foods and sweets. For adults the Lions will be providing warm seasonal drinks from 2 bars, too. The towns restaurants and pubs will also be open.

So to kick off the season in style, come to Ilminster.

Frame of Mind

FRAME of Mind is here to offer you original, fun and stylish ideas to make your gift shopping easier. Based in Ilminster, deep in the heart of Somerset where we have been since 1994 when we offered picture framing in the back half of the shop, and sold gifts and cards in the front half. We now offer limited edition prints, and have built up a reputation as one of the area's leading contemporary galleries.

Frame of Mind remains an independent, family run business. We're two brothers, and work closely with an energetic team who help us with the jewellery, handbags etc, to offer a personal service characterised by an awareness of current trends, individuality, creativity and enthusiasm. We are official stockists for Emma Bridgewater Pottery, Konplott Jewellery, Jellycat and Moulin Roty Soft Toys, plus Joseph Joseph to name a few.

Filled with our favourite finds from home and abroad, from kitchen accessories and cool gizmos and gadgets, rainy day pocket money presents to designer costume jewellery and handbags, much of our selection is practical and there is often a mixture of humour and imagination. So, from cool, unusual gifts which are also useful, to a new handbag which you just can't live without – our stores are filled with products we are proud to stock, and think you'll love too! We think it's well worth a visit if you are in the area, but if not, make a coffee or a nice cup of tea, and have a browse through our web site.

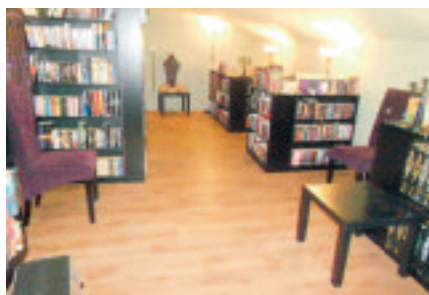

The Book Rest

THE Book Rest is the result of a life-long dream of a life-long love of books – any books, all books, old or young, fresh or musty, crinkly or smooth, soft or hard – and a place to read them in comfort and harmony.

The shop stocks all genres of books, many of which are first or second editions of timeless classics. Carole-Ann currently has in stock a 7th edition of the popular children's classic "Peter and Wendy", an original of the Peter Pan series of books, perfect for any collector or to be passed down to future generations!

The Book Rest is open Tuesday to Saturday 9am to 5pm, and closed Sundays, Mondays, and Bank Holidays.

Just Things

JUST Things is Ilminster's fair trade shop where everything we sell is fairly traded and includes food, drinks, cards, jewellery, toys, gifts and some clothing. Just Things is proud to be a member of the British Association for Fair Trade Shops.

This year we have a selection of Christmas tree decorations at reasonable prices from Traidcraft and New Overseas Traders. The ever popular Believe You Can range now includes Christmas fairies and angels as well as fairies, angels, pixies, ballerinas and pirates. Christmas cards, both religious and secular, are selling well. Once again we have The Real Christmas Advent Calendar with chocolate and a Christmas story booklet.

Be prepared for a cold winter with a Black Yak fleece-lined knitted jacket. Black Yak also supply fleece-lined gloves, mittens, wrist-warmers, hats and headbands mostly in bright and cheerful colours but some are more sober!

There are gifts for all the family, with a section just for men, stocking fillers and household items. Table and floor lamps are back in stock as are soaps and hand balm for cooks and gardeners.

We also have Christmas wrapping paper and beautiful hand made paper.

We look forward to seeing you.

Hazelwell Lodge

HAZELWELL LODGE is an award-winning 35 bed specialist residential care home situated in the parish town of Ilminster in South West Somerset. Miss Edna Maxwin took over the running of the home in 1987, for the elderly & individual's with dementia. Her aim was to change people's perception of care homes & how people view their autumn years.

Through her dedication & hard work we progressed on to specializing in the care of individuals living with dementia & associated mental health care needs. The operation of the home is designed to enable our residents to resume a much more desirable way of living that achieves their individual needs on a personal level through person centered care. We have created a homely environment which is safe & adaptable to the unique needs of each individual, this enables our residents to enjoy as much independence, mental & physical stimulation as possible. Miss Maxwin has been joined by her son Chris Ochoa in the ownership of the home. Claire Kingdon, who has over 20 years' experience in dementia care is the registered manager. With support & interaction from local authorities, NHS & Health-care professionals, it is clear to see that perceptions HAVE changed. Hazelwell Lodge holds an important & respected position in our local community.

CHRISTMAS CANDY CANE COCKTAIL RECIPES

NO holiday party is complete without signature cocktails that fit the theme. These two delicious drink recipes are definite crowd-pleasers for a Candy Cane Christmas that don't require a laundry list of ingredients.

PERFECTLY PEPPERMINTY

Ingredients:

Club Soda
Ice
Martini shaker
2 oz vodka
2 oz white Creme de Menthe
1 oz peppermint schnapps
Mini candy canes and/or festive red straws
Red sugar (for the rim)

Instructions:

Combine the vodka, Creme de Menthe and peppermint schnapps in a martini shaker filled with ice, then shake. Let sit for a minute. While mixture is sitting, coat the rim of the glass with the red sugar. To rim the glass, pour sugar onto a shallow plate. Dip glass rim into water, followed by the sugar. Strain mixture from shaker into the martini glass. Top off with the club soda. Put in a festive red straw and/or garnish with a mini candy cane.

CANDY CANE MARTINI

Ingredients:

Cranberry juice
Ice
Martini shaker
2 oz berry-flavored vodka
2 oz white Creme de Menthe
1 oz peppermint schnapps
Mini candy canes (for the rim & garnish)

Instructions:

Put small candy canes into a quart size freezer bag and crush them by using a rolling pin. Continue until there are small pieces for rim of glass. Combine the vodka, Creme de Menthe and peppermint schnapps in a martini shaker filled with ice, then shake. Let sit for a minute. While mixture is sitting, coat the rim of the glass with the crushed candy canes. To rim the glass pour candy cane pieces onto a shallow plate. Dip glass rim into water, followed by the sugar. Strain mixture from shaker into the martini glass. Top off with the cranberry juice. Garnish with a mini candy cane.

MARVELLOUS MINCE PIES

PAUL Hollywood prefers melt-in-the-mouth pastry for his fruity mince pies, so this recipe is nice and short

PREP: 45 MINS

COOK: 15 MINS

SERVES: 16

Ingredients:

1 large jar mincemeat (about 600g)
2 satsuma, segmented
1 apple, finely chopped zest 1 lemon
little icing sugar, for dusting
For the pastry
375g plain flour
260g unsalted butter, softened

125g caster sugar, plus extra for sprinkling
1 large egg, plus 1 beaten egg for glazing

Instructions:

Place the flour and butter in a bowl and rub together to a crumb consistency. Add the sugar and the egg, and mix together. Tip out onto a lightly floured surface and fold until the pastry comes together, be careful not to over mix. Wrap the pastry in cling film and chill for 10 mins.

Scoop the mincemeat into a bowl and add the satsumas, apple and zest.

Heat oven to 220C/200C fan/gas 7. Roll out the pastry to 3mm thick. Using a round cutter (about 10cm), cut out 16 bases and place them into muffin trays. Put 1 1/2 tbsp mincemeat mixture into each.

Brush the edge of each pie with a little beaten egg. Re-roll out the pastry to cut 7cm lids and press them on top to seal. Glaze with the rest of the egg, sprinkle with caster sugar, then make a small cut in the tops.

Bake mince pies for 15-20 mins until golden brown. Leave to cool before releasing them from the muffin trays and dusting with icing sugar. Serve.

Varied dairy delights at Crewkerne Farmers Market

THE MONTHLY Crewkerne Farmers Market is this coming Saturday, November 19th in Falkland Square, in the centre of town, from 9am to 1pm. The market will have a range of bread, cakes, ready meals, apples and seasonal veg, fish, meat, poultry and eggs and Ed the Potter!

The market welcomes a couple of newcomers to this month; The Good Goat Company with their goat's cheese and milk, and also preserves. Goats milk has a reputation for health benefits and has been used for some time in allergy clinics. Fans of goats milk say it reduces inflammation and improves bioavailability of nutrients, strengthening bones, increases immunity and prevents toxins from accumulating in the body.

The Old Moo Shed, based near Chard, will be selling raw cow's milk and cream, plus bags of logs from their farmland. This sounds like a welcome trip down memory lane for those of us who hark back to the days of tasty milk with a creamy 'head' rather than today's supermarket offerings of homogenised milk.

Fine Line are back for a second month with handmade crafts just in time for Christmas gift ideas.

Come along to the Farmers Market on Saturday and treat your tastebuds to high quality food, produced and reared in the local area.

For Farmers Market dates across Somerset and details of all the producers visit www.somersetfarmersmarkets.co.uk or pick up the 2016 leaflet when you visit Crewkerne on Saturday.

Heads Will Roll as dark comedy tour comes to East Devon

HEADS WILL ROLL is a dark epic comedy about delusion, vanity, and the corruption of power from the insatiably curious Told by an Idiot. Inspired by the myth of El Dorado - the fantastical city where rivers ran with gold - Heads Will Roll explores the quests we carry throughout our lives, even if our goals are out of reach.

A golden man wades into a lake and disappears, searching for forgiveness.

A BBC TV executive flushes money down the toilet in her desperate quest for soap opera ratings.

A Spanish conquistador crashes through the jungle convinced he will find a city where rivers run with gold. Heads Will Roll draws from a variety of sources including the extraordinary films of Herzog, the magic of Shakespeare's late plays, and one particularly doomed BBC soap opera.

Featuring an international, all-female cast, the production premieres at Theatre Royal Plymouth before dates at Birmingham Rep, Liverpool Everyman, and a rural tour connecting Told by an Idiot with audiences in small-scale venues and village halls across Devon and Dorset.

"I was excited by the potential of the myth of El Dorado and the elements of folly and failure this fateful quest entailed. It is proving particularly rewarding to work with an all-female company to explore such typically male themes of pride and hubris. We are thrilled to be taking the show on our first rural tour in recent years, to connect directly with audiences in such intimate settings, and to share our work with people that may not usually have the opportunity to see it." Paul Hunter, Told by an Idiot's co-Founder/Artistic Director and Director of Heads Will Roll.

The show's cast is Mercè Ribot and Patricia Rodriguez (who met on a Told by an Idiot workshop and went on to form Little Soldier, acclaimed for its recent production of Don Quixote), performer and composer Alicia Martel, one of Barcelona's most unique musicians (who performed in Told by an Idiot's Get Happy at the Barbican, 2015) and Colombian-born performer and choreographer Andrea Pelaez. Paul Hunter directs, assisted by Puppetry Consultant and Assistant Director Alumdena Adalia (founder of puppetry company Around the Glove). Design is by Associate Idiot, Michael Vale.

Heads Will Roll continues Told by an Idiot's relationship with Theatre Royal Plymouth following co-productions My Perfect Mind, And the Horse You Rode in On and The Fahrenheit Twins.

Heads Will Roll comes to Talaton Parish Hall (£12) on November 18th, The Marine Theatre in Lyme Regis (£12/£10) on November 23rd, and Bridport Arts Centre (£12/£10) on November 25th. For more details and to book see the advert below.

Cinders comes to Colyton

REHEARSALS are well underway for Colyton Theatre Group's enchanting production of Cinderella, at Colyton Town Hall from November 30th to December 3rd to start your Christmas with a jolly good laugh! A superb cast, many of whom you will recognise, are supported by an amazing team behind the scenes creating a theatrical delight, all under the watchful eye of director Emily Thomas.

This is the magical tale of love between the handsome Prince Charming (Steph Letten) and the beautiful Cinderella (Debbie Meakin).

Cinders' friend, Buttons (Stephen Knight), is a most endearing character, whose unrequited love for her will bring a tear to your eye. His faithful friend, Mousie (9 year-old Alexander Wall), comforts him along the way.

Dandini (Bev Reed), the Prince's rascally manservant, remains truly loyal to his friend.

Of course, every pantomime has a villain, and Colyton Theatre Group's Cinderella is no exception. The 'terrifying' Baroness Hardup (Cynthia Bell) and her two (very ugly) daughters, Cheryl (Natalie McNeice) and Beryl (Tish Wells), will appal and delight you with their ridiculous antics.

The upright Major Domo (Bob Whitell) holds court, whilst our Fairy Godmother (Sue Whitell) guides you through the twists and turns and stunning songs of this traditional story which will enthral you throughout!

Cinderella will be performed at Colyton Town Hall on Wednesday, November 30th, 7.30pm, Thursday, December 1st 7.30pm, Friday, December 2nd 7.30pm, and Saturday, December 3rd, 7.30pm.

Tickets are £9 adults, £5 Under 18s.

Private Peaceful

HONITON Community Theatre Company's latest production at The Beehive opens this week with 'Private Peaceful' the stage adaptation of the Michael Morpurgo's novel of the same name. It's the story of two young brothers who go to war together in 1914 from Devon. The play takes us through their joyful rural upbringing and their experiences on the battlefields of France.

HCTC are working with lots of community partners across the town to bring the story to life, Honiton Town Band feature in the show as part of a scene involving a World War One recruitment drive and The Baton amongst other local organisations have helped source props and costumes to make the production as authentic as possible.

Mr M. Robson, the Chairman of the Honiton branch of the Royal British Legion will also be reading a brief speech at the end of each show.

Private Peaceful is appropriately being performed on the 17th to 19th of November at 7.30pm to tie in with Remembrance Sunday.

The show is set to be a fantastic community evening. Collections on each night will be donated to The Royal British Legion and The Baton charity.

The production features local boys Jack Haigh and Josh Buss as the Peaceful brothers Tommo and Charlie as well as Abi Jennings as their young sweetheart Molly. All these talented young actors studied at Honiton Community College and their younger selves are played by Lewis Bonetta, Jaron Bonetta and Maisie Harvey-Ingram who are all currently at the college.

Director Sally Cregan said "It's such a privilege to work with so much talent from the town. In the cast we have everyone from young Tommo and Charlie, to Grandma Wolf; it's really reflective of our group, young and older talent work together and everyone gets on really well."

Tickets for the production are available from the Beehive Box office by calling 01404 384050 or online at beehivehoniton.co.uk.

Paul's Pacaminos bring Tex-Mex classics to Ilminster

AT LEAST one member of this highly respected seven-piece Americana group Los Pacaminos will be very familiar. The London-based outfit is led by one of the UK's finest and best loved vocalist; Paul Young. And he's not the only reason to part with your hard-earned cash and leave the house - some of the best musicians in the business have teamed up to present this mix of Tex-Mex classics that will have you dancing the night away!

As Paul himself says, the emphasis is good music and good times. "We sing, we dance, we love... We drink tequila. Only the good stuff these days!" The band's sound came about because of Paul's love of the music but also the sheer joy of playing it. He says, "I first heard Ry Cooder's hybrid version of Tex-Mex, and I started to escape into a world of life down by the border, hot weather, good food... we started back in '92 and it was too much fun to stop. I love the lift you get when playing it. We're all past wanting to play or listen to music that depresses."

These guys have played with the best in the business - Queen, Tom Jones, Robbie Williams, First Aid Kit and many, many more - but now you have the chance to see them play in Ilminster. Los Pacaminos promise a great night out. Don't miss them!

Los Pacaminos play live at The Square & Compass, Ilminster on Saturday, November 26th. For more details visit www.squareandcompasspub.com

Pentabus Theatre's uplifting telling of 'Here I Belong' heads to Stockland

PENTABUS Theatre Company's production of 'Here I Belong' by Matt Hartley

comes to Stockland Village Hall (EX14 9EF) on Friday, November 18th at 7.30pm.

Meet Elsie, she lives in the countryside, it's her 90th birthday and you're invited to celebrate. Bring your friends, bring your family or just bring yourself, there will be cake!

Elsie has lived here all her life. She has seen elections, weddings, wars, people coming, people going. This village is where her daughter grew up, it's where her husband died and it's where she's going to stay. 'Here I Belong' takes you through decades of history seen through the eyes of one village resident in this funny and moving new play. A sensitive, charming and honest portrayal about changing village life and the right to grow old in your own home.

You'll be Pleased at these tunes

BRIDPORT Arts Centre is presenting a night of Club Classics with Ministry of Sound DJ Jon Pleased Wimmin.

Jon Cooper AKA Jon Pleased Wimmin is a UK DJ who rose to fame in the club world during the 1990s, where his flamboyant cross dressing and stylish presence became a force to be reckoned with.

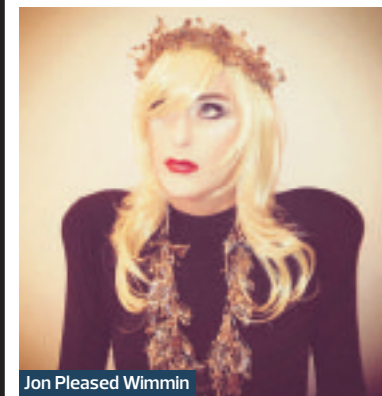

After cutting his teeth as a clubber at seminal late 80s London clubs such as Taboo, Sacrosanct and the Mud Club, Jon's career on the other side of the decks started in 1991. His three piece Cabaret act 'The Pleased Wimmin' were spotted performing at Kinky Gerlinky by Danny Rampling who immediately invited them to come and be dancers at his club Glam at the Milk Bar.

In the early 90s he was fixture at clubs nationwide such as Puschca, Venus, Fabric, Back To Basics, Miss Moneypennies, Slam, Pacha, Space, The Pod, Ministry of Sound, Cream and Renaissance amongst many others.

Overseas beckoned and by the end of the 1990s Jon had played pretty much everywhere from Ibiza, Buenos Aires, Japan, South America, Australia, South Africa, Singapore and more alongside the whole of Europe.

Marketing Manager Lisa Wilcock said: "Jon is legendary with clubbers who have been to his events, luckily he had availability to play a set at the Arts Centre. So put your hands in the air and get ready for an exceptional night"

Jon Pleased Wimmin comes to Bridport Arts Centre on Saturday, November 26th, 8pm-1am. Tickets are £10, available by calling 01308 424204 or online at www.bridport-arts.com.

Motörhead guitarist to play live in Seaton

French opera, live theatre and comedy film also coming-up at The Gateway

MOTÖRHEAD guitarist Phil Campbell and his band The Bastard Sons, supported by Heavy Oil, will play live at The Gateway, Seaton on Saturday, November 26th at 7.30pm.

Campbell has teamed up with his sons Todd, Dane and Tyla, along with vocalist Neil Starr, for the new project. In a recent interview, Phil talked about how the band was formed. "We had a big party for Todd's birthday a few years ago and we played a few cover songs and had a jam", Campbell recalls. "It sounded so good we decided to start a band!"

A typical set is full of classic Motörhead songs infused with covers of some of Phil's favourite bands, including Black Sabbath and the Rolling Stones, and the classic 'Nutmash City Limits'.

Phil Campbell has enjoyed various accolades throughout his career, including four Grammy nominations and one Grammy win (in 2005), two Golden God awards from Metal Hammer magazine, a Kerrang! award, an official proclamation from the City of Los Angeles in August 2015.

Support for the evening comes from Heavy Oil; a new all-original, high-energy hard rock trio based in the Midlands and are currently.

CHANGING pace on Saturday, December 10th, the Gateway will be showing a live stream of L'Armour De Lair, performed by New York MET Opera Live. Doors open at 5.30pm, with the performance from 5.55pm.

Finnish composer Kaija Saariaho's breakthrough opera was described by the New York Times as "transfixing...a lushly beautiful score".

Commissioned by the Salzburg Festival, where it was first seen in 2000, it will now finally have its Metropolitan Opera premiere in a dazzling new production by Robert Lepage, featuring glimmering ribbons of LED lights that extend across the length of the stage and over the orchestra pit.

Eric Owens is the knight on a quest of love and Susanna Phillips is his lover on the other side of the sea. Conductor Susanna Mälkki makes her Met debut. Sung in French with English subtitles.

FOLLOWING their hit run on Broadway, Ian McKellen and Patrick Stewart return to the West End stage in Harold Pinter's No Man's Land, broadcast live to the Gateway from Wyndham's Theatre, London.

One summer's evening, two ageing writers, Hirst and Spooner, meet in a Hampstead pub and continue their drinking into the night at Hirst's stately house nearby. As the pair become increasingly inebriated, and their stories increasingly unbelievable, the lively conversation soon turns into a revealing power game, further complicated by the return home of two sinister younger men. Also starring Owen Teale and Damien Molony, don't miss this glorious revival of Pinter's comic classic. The broadcast will be followed by an exclusive Q&A with the cast and director Sean Mathias.

Phil Campbell and The Bastard Sons

The performance of No Man's Land will be shown on Friday, December 16th. Doors open 6.30pm, with the performance starting 7pm.

THE GATEWAY will also be hosting a 'film and picnic night', showing the hilarious Absolutely Fabulous film.

Bring your own picnic, or just come and enjoy the film Absolutely Fabulous, with Jennifer Saunders and Joanna Lumley as they bring the fun and madness of the TV series to the big screen.

Absolutely Fabulous will be shown on Thursday, December 8th at 6.30pm. Tickets are £5.

A true bandsman in every sense of the word

ROGER NEWTON'S banding started at a very early age in his home village of Winsham. As with many bands at the time families were very much in evidence and the Winsham Coronation Band were no exception with Rogers family represented by two of his uncles.

After his formative years in Winsham the inevitable happened and he got married and moved to Chard, into a house just down the road from the band room and so his connection with Chard Concert Brass began.

His years with Chard coincided with many of the high points, qualifying for the 4th section National Finals in London in 1981, tours to Germany and France, and some good results at contests and concerts, all the time making sure he was involved in not only the music but the general running of the band doing his bit and more, of the work required to ensure things went well.

Competition was always a large part of Roger's banding so to further his progress in this field he left Chard and joined the Phoenix Brass in Crewkerne.

Here he carried on in his fully committed way pushing his abilities on the Bb bass and enjoying his contest weekends away with the Phoenix branch of the Caravan Club. Spend a day at a contest with Roger and you come to realise how well known and respected he was within the brass band community.

Banding wasn't his only interest, skittles nurtured his competitive side and his love of railways fed his thirst for facts and figures.

A true bandsman in every sense of the word and sadly missed by many.

Both Bands are coming together for a charity concert in aid of Meningitis Research on Friday 25th November 2016 at St Marys Church, Chard. 7.30pm. Tickets are £5 available at Barons, Chard or on the door.

Book now for Christmas parties at Axe Cliff Golf Club

AXE CLIFF Golf Club has spent the last two years transforming the course into its former glory. In the last 12 months it has also concentrated on its clubhouse lunches, dinners and extending its wine, beer and cider selections.

Set on the cliffs above Axmouth Harbour, Axe Cliff Golf Club offers the perfect blend of stunning views, friendly and down to earth Devon hospitality and great value for money. The club is very well known for its friendly and relaxed hospitality, offering reasonably priced, good quality home-cooked food, in a comfortable and welcoming clubhouse. As a consequence, the number of visitors enjoying light lunches from just £5 a head has quadrupled. The coffee wholesaler has been so pleased with the increase in sales that a new machine has been installed to provide the same coffee ranges as all the corporate coffee shops use.

Axe Cliff are keen to promote both the health benefits of golf and the great social atmosphere of the club. Just to give a sample of what goes on; vouchers are available at £25 for a coffee or tea on arrival, 18 holes of golf and a meal with a beer or a wine afterwards. Also an ideal Christmas present!

The Club has numerous events throughout the year offering food and entertainment to members and non-members. On Friday, November 25th the club will be holding a Bingo Night. On the night they are offering a meal deal, a table of four, two courses plus a bottle of wine is only £15.00 per person. On December 4th is the Variety Night where members tread the boards, sing, dance and generally entertain at varying levels of competence. The tickets are £7.50 each including food but will be in short supply when this goes to print. An enjoyable night is always busy with both public and members so book early. Phone now to book a table 01297 21754.

Once again for 2016 The club is offering a sumptuous Christmas Lunch and Dinner Menu for private parties and group bookings. You can collect a copy from the club or email for a digital version. The Christmas Menu bookings will be available from November 30th to December 23rd.

If you would like to make a booking for your family party or works function call 01297 21754 or email: bookingsaxecliff@gmail.com.

Volkswagen Golf – The update

Major update for the most successful Volkswagen ever

VOLKSWAGEN is digitalising the most successful model in the Group's history – the Golf – with a major update. The main focus of the 2017 model year is – alongside new engines, keener design and new assistance systems – a completely new generation of infotainment systems. As a world first in the compact class, the top-of-the-range "Discover Pro" system can be operated by gesture control. With its 9.2-inch screen it forms a conceptual and visual entity with the Active Info Display, which is also new to the Golf. In parallel to this, the range of online services and apps has also been enlarged. The update to the Golf, of which over 33 million have been sold to date, also reflects a new standard for assistance systems in the compact class: technologies such as City Emergency Braking with new Pedestrian Monitoring function, the new Traffic Jam Assist (partially automated driving at speeds of up to 60 km/h) and Emergency Assist, which is also new in this segment, significantly improve safety.

New TSI engines and a new 7-speed DSG

The progressive digitalisation is accompanied by the enhanced EA211 TSI engine family. The new Golf initially sees the debut of the new turbocharged petrol engine, the "1.5 TSI Evo" – a 110 kW/150 PS four-cylinder turbo with Active Cylinder Management (ACT). This will be followed by a BlueMotion version producing 96 kW/130 PS. Volkswagen has also boosted the performance of the Golf GTI, the new version of which will produce 169 kW/230 PS and 180 kW/245 PS (GTI Performance) and a new 7-speed DSG (dual clutch gearbox) will gradually replace the 6-speed DSG as a high-efficiency gearbox for the Golf.

Powerful, more refined design and new LED lights

Volkswagen presents the update to the two- and four-door Golf, the Golf Variant and the sporty Golf GTI and Golf GTE at Volkswagen's headquarters in Wolfsburg. The more refined design of all new versions of the Golf makes a more powerful impression than ever before. The modifications include new bumpers at the front and rear, new halogen headlights with LED daytime running lights, new full LED headlights instead of xenon headlights, new front wings, new full LED tail lights – which come as standard for every version of the Golf – as well as new wheels and colours, and the interior of the 2017 model year Golf is finished off with refined new decorative trims and fabrics. The range of equipment versions of the Golf remains unchanged.

Two-seat Pioneer set to take Honda into new territory

THINK of an exciting Honda two seater with all-wheel-drive and most car fans will instantly think of the thrilling NSX supercar.

But now there is a new open-top Honda two seater that's even faster than the mighty NSX – as long as the race is off the road...

The new Pioneer is Honda's first Side-by-Side (SxS) utility vehicle, designed to be more practical than a quad bike and more manageable than a traditional full size 4x4 vehicle.

Employing Honda's acclaimed ATV technology and featuring a powerful and efficient 700cc engine, the supremely capable Pioneer will be available as either a two or four-seater.

The Pioneer will open up a world of possibility for both business and leisure users who need an ATV that will take them to even the most hard to reach places.

What's more its launch will help commercial operators meet the requirements of the European Two Man Working Directive, where at least two people are required to be present when working in dangerous conditions, without needing two vehicles.

The launch of the Pioneer will cement the brand's status as the undisputed market leader in the ATV sector. Honda accounts for more than 50% of all UK ATV sales.

Steve Morris, Head of Honda (UK), said: "The Pioneer is a fantastic vehicle that will strengthen Honda's ATV offering significantly. By adding a choice of SxS options to our range, we will be able to build on our best-in-industry reputation and the long-standing customer relationships we have developed through our nationwide network of authorised dealers."

He added: "The Pioneer also sets a new benchmark for a SxS ATV. Our engineers and designers have developed it from the wheels up with the same attention to detail they would any Honda vehicle."

"This means users will benefit from new levels of comfort, refinement, agility and handling as well as the superior performance and aftersales care for which Honda is known."

More information about the Honda Pioneer will be revealed through HondaUKPower channels on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram.

New versions of Audi range stars reveal their darker side

AUDI design is even more becoming in black - this appears to be the opinion of an ever increasing number of UK customers choosing Black Edition versions of their preferred Audi model, prompting more widespread integration of the dark tinted specification option to include the latest A3 and S3, TT and TT Roadster, S6 and S7 Sportback models. Available from this month, these new variants join the first ever Black Edition version of the Q3 compact SUV, which has also just come on stream.

In the A3 three-door, five-door Sportback and Saloon ranges Black Edition specification is offered as a step up from the top S line trim. It brings special 18-inch 10-spoke alloy wheels with a matt titanium finish and darkened privacy glass extending from the B pillar rearwards, plus of course a distinctive black finish for the Single Frame grille surround, air inlets, window cappings and door mirrors. Inside, the ambience is also enriched by a 10-speaker Audi Sound System with 180 watts of music power.

S3 three-door and Sportback Black Edition models combine the new colour-coding with 18-inch five-arm Turbine design wheels, while S3 Saloon Black Edition models upgrade to a 19-inch five-arm Wing design corresponding in size with the 19-inch wheel used by 'standard' S3 Saloon models. Internally all three variants also benefit from a Bang & Olufsen audio system in place of the Audi Sound System normally included as part of the S3 specification.

The Black Edition formula is applied in a similar concentration for TT and TTS Coupe and Roadster models, but in these versions 19-inch five-spoke Blade design alloy wheels and Bang & Olufsen audio form part of the package, as does an additional powered wind deflector for the Roadster.

The Q3 range adopts the Black Edition specification for the first time in its production lifespan as part of a package of upgrades which become applicable across the UK range from this month. Replacing the S line plus model, it builds on that version's already extensive specification not only with its black styling package and 19-inch 10-Y-spoke design alloy wheels with their black diamond cut finish, but also with standard metallic paint, privacy glass and a BOSE sound system upgrade.

The particularly visually arresting S6 Saloon and Avant and S7 Sportback Black Edition models also derive their more brooding stance from similar styling revisions. S6 and S6 Avant Black Edition models combine these with 20-inch five twin spoke alloy wheels, while S7 Sportback Black Edition models move up to a 21-inch five-arm Rotor design. Inside, in addition to piano black inlays, both models gain a BOSE sound system and a flat-bottomed multi-function steering wheel.

AXMINSTER TOWN P-P

NEWTON ABBOTT

Division One (E)

AXMINSTER Town's scheduled match with Newton Abbott was postponed at the last minute due to a lack of a referee.

Local Devon & Exeter referee Bryan Perryman is understood to have offered his services, but the teams failed to agree his appointment and Axminster were left to refund the £4 entrance fee to the 100 or so disgruntled supporters.

A statement on South West Peninsula League twitter feed stated: 'Referee failed to attend, league to commence inquiry into circumstances.'

Next up for Tigers manager Ian Burns and his squad is next Saturday's visit by lowly GALTINGTON UNITED (3pm).

Axminster have been handed a home tie against reigning Devon & Exeter League Premier Division champions Newtown in the last 16 of the Devon Premier Cup, full draw;

Axminster Town v Newtown
Bovey Tracey v Brautonia
Crediton Utd v Galtington Utd
East Allington v Mount Gould
Exwick Villa v The Windmill
Liverton Utd v Elmore
Stoke Gabriel v Ilfracombe
Exeter Uni v Elburton Villa

DEVON & EXETER LEAGUE

HONITON TOWN moved four points clear at the top of the Premier Division table after rivals Newton were beaten 3-2 at Acland Park by Feniton.

Joe Mulhall was the Honiton hero with a hat-trick in the 4-0 win over Okehampton. Ben Ashford had the other 'Hippos' goal.

Danny Lewis, Ben Ede and Jon French netted for Fenny in their 3-2 triumph over Newton. Fenny finished the game with 10-men after French received two yellow cards.

SEATON TOWN jumped up to seventh spot after a convincing 3-0 win over Exmouth Amateurs at Colyford Road.

The Greens held a slender 1-0 lead at the break courtesy of a Kyle Gould strike. Gould struck again at the break with James Hill also finding the net.

BEER ALBION came out on top 4-2 in the bottom of the table clash at Bow AAC.

The Fishermen were missing five key players plus manager Richard Walker, not fully fit, was on the bench. Nevertheless, they started well and were in complete control for the first 30 minutes with man-of-the-match Simon Smith pulling the strings in midfield and their makeshift back three well-marshalled by Sam Phillips.

After creating three good opportunities in the first 10 minutes, it was no surprise when Beer went ahead on 18 minutes when winger Luke Morrison's cross drifted over the Bow keeper's grasp and centre forward Chris Long tapped in at the far post. Seven minutes later Beer went 2-0 up when Morrison chased down a long ball, rounded the keeper and scored from an acute angle.

They went close again on the half-hour 30 minutes when Smith's in-swinging corner was tipped on to the crossbar by Bow's overworked keeper.

The Fishermen continued to carve out chances and should have put the game beyond doubt but Bow were given a lifeline on 35 minutes when a cross from the right was tapped home to make the score 2-1.

The second half was closely contested and Beer worked really hard to keep their noses in front. Both sides had good chances before Beer increased their lead on 72 minutes when Morrison latched on to George Harwood's through ball to hold off the Bow defender and finish well past the home keeper.

But Bow were by no means finished and pulled the score back to 3-2 on 80 minutes with a free kick from 25 yards that swerved around the wall and into the top right corner.

This set up a rousing finish and a late Bow equaliser looked likely as the Fishermen hung on desperately.

Fortunately the pressure was relieved on 89 minutes when Beer broke away and Long scored his second to seal a hard-earned 4-2 win for the Fishermen.

Meanwhile, BEER RESERVES, who drew 6-6 away at Alphington on Saturday, have a tough home game against 5th Division leaders Royal Oak. Kick off at the Furzebrake is at 2.15 and match sponsor is Clinton Devon Estates.

COLYTON moved level on points with second placed Exeter University Reserves in Division One after a 2-1 win a relegation haunted Bickleigh.

But the Tanners didn't have things all their own way. They took the lead after just five minutes through Nathan Maddocks.

But the hosts equalised on the stroke of half time and it wasn't until the 75th minute that George Richards conjured up the winner.

"We had loads of the play, but their keeper made four or five really good saves," said Colyton player-manager Mike Culm.

There was a cracking encounter at the Davey Fort where LYME REGIS threw the kitchen sink at Exeter University Reserves in a stirring second half performance.

But a 25-yarder from Rhys Hayter was all that got past impressive keeper Dan Clarke and the Students' first half strikes form Max Foster and Matt Jacko saw them home.

Down in Division Three HONITON TOWN RESERVES banked three welcome points after Blake Freemantle (2) and Matt Urquhart netted in a 3-0 win at Exmouth Amateurs Reserves.

Elsewhere, a double from Alex Wheatley and singles from Gary Spiller and Adam Cowling saw AXMINSTER TOWN RESERVES to a 4-1 victory away at Newton Poppleford.

In Division Five MILLWEY RISE visited Winchester with another depleted side. Both Hoole's, striker Levi and keeper Nathan were missing and defender Haydn Lewis was unavailable.

Winchester took the lead after 10 minutes. Five minutes later they added another from the penalty spot after the ball bounced awkwardly and struck Zak Meaker on the arm.

In the final minutes of the half Tyler Warren cleverly lobbed the home side's keeper after he had been put through by Jack Farrant only for Winchester to hit back from the first of two disputed corners to go into the break 3-1 in front.

After a poor first half Millway stepped up a gear at the start of the second and played some great attacking football running their opponents ragged at times.

In the 60th minute Sam Burke cleverly flicked the ball past the keeper after Nathan Wormsley's shot had been blocked.

This led to a series of raids on the Winchester goal with Shayne Featherstone's effort being tipped round the post for a corner.

The equaliser came a few minutes later when Wormsley broke through and beat the keeper.

Millway continued pressing and kept the home defence under relentless pressure only to be undone by a disputed corner which appeared to go out of play without any Millway player touching the ball.

And this after an unexplained seven minutes of extra time. From the resulting cross the ball pin-balled back and forward in the goal area before a grateful Winchester player stabbed it home to win the game as the referee blew the final whistle after seven minutes of added time.

UPOTTERY RESERVES remain top of the Division Eight table after a comfortable 6-0 win at Amory Green Rovers. They made the perfect start when Matt Frost got on the end of an Olly Cramer cross to open the scoring after just two minutes.

Soon after Cramer created a second for Dan Hole to put the visitors firmly in control.

Brad Morris added a third on the half hour and the Otters breezed into the half time interval.

A minute after the turnaround Jay Williams tapped in to make it 4-0 before Frost and MoM Hole added their second goals of a good afternoon with keeper Adam Pulman recording his third clean sheet in four games.

Elsewhere, a Steve Wooloff strike 10 minutes from time salvaged a point for AXMINSTER TOWN 3RDS whose promotion hopes received a setback when they were held to a 3-3 draw at Queens Head.

Then Tigers had earlier led 2-1 at half-time courtesy of an Adam Whitehouse double.

Meanwhile, down in Division Nine HONITON TOWN 3RDS made it a clean sheet winning treble for the club with Ryan Pike, Nathan Selway and an OG leading to a 3-0 win at lowly Central Reserves.

Finally, MILLWEY RISE RESERVES led twice before sliding to a 4-3 home defeat at the hands of runaway leaders Witheridge 3rds.

They took the lead in the 10th minute through Mark Pike only to then give away two sloppy goals before eventually equalising just before half time when Stuart King netted from the penalty spot.

In the second half MoM Pike flicked the ball on for Danny Larcombe to tap in at the far post to put Millway ahead at 3-2. But there was major disappointment for Rise as they conceded twice in the last five minutes.

Hi Q hit top spot with fine victory

THE two unbeaten sides, Hi Q and Toucan Chicks, met knowing that the winners would be on top of the division.

The game started evenly with the score at 7-7 at the end of quarter one. With Sadie Moran playing well Hi Q moved 20-15 ahead going into the final period despite good play from Charlotte Yorke for the Chicks.

The final period saw Hi Q in control with a 29-21 final score.

Depleted Signs SW

Flamingos moved up into second place with a 69-12 victory over Signs South West, who played the game with only five players. Faye Hawkins was the SSW star.

Otters continued their winning run with their third victory in a row when they defeated Ford & Pentecost Panthers 27-19 in a game that saw Becky Smith shine for Otters and Isla Quick for the Panthers.

Howden Hawks	5	-152	1

Meanwhile, Howden Hawks picked up their first point of the campaign in a 31-19 defeat at the hands of HNC Hot Shots for whom Hannah Vicary played well.

The first two quarters were close thanks to good work from Rachel Larcombe for Hawks and at half way it was advantage to HNC by 11-8, but then they stepped up a gear with Hawks doing enough for their first point.

Sidmouth Toucans increased their lead at the top of Division Two with a 33-17 win over Swaggemamas. Anna Rowson and Karen Bennett were the players of the game.

The other game saw Pixies beat JD Tyres 19-16. With Tiff Munt playing well JD got off to a good start and were 12-8 ahead at half way.

running round-up

Seaton Parkrun is great success

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS with Dave Mutter DESPITE misty rain on Saturday morning, 23 AVR's took part in the first Seaton parkrun with another 18 volunteering (along with others) to make this inaugural event a tremendous success. In total 188 people ran with some coming from as far away as Surrey and Birmingham to take part.

AVR Amy Greenhalgh was the first woman home in 19:39 with an age graded score of 77.01% Terry Emmett was third overall and first male AVR in 18:24 with an age graded score of 71.65%.

However, honours for the overall best age graded score of 84.29% go to AVR Eleanor Wood who finished in 22:23 putting down a marker for us all to aim for.

Congratulations to Lesley Adams and her team for getting these runs underway. This event will be run every Saturday at 9am - see www.parkrun.org.uk/seaton/ for more info and how to get involved running or helping.

The following day Carol Austin took part in her first race for a year following a long injury, completing the Conductive Education 10k in Birmingham in 47:31.

Last Wednesday saw the 2nd edition of the unofficial Seaton winter 5k series and a great night was had by all, including every runner who ran in the 1st event beating their time.

First home was Terry Emmett setting a new course record of 17:53 followed by Luke Reed, 18:19, Garry Perratt 18:31, Josh Hopson 19:31, Matt Hewer 20:34, Richard Harvey (from Pure Endurance) 20:41 and James Ashforth 20:55.

Congratulations to Matt Thurgood for winning the November Junior AVR handicap in 13:40 with Sammie D'Albertanson 2nd, 18:13; Ethan Huntley 3rd, 13:27; Erin Ellis 4th, 16:33 and Josh D'Albertanson 5th, 15:46.

Holly Eyre leads the Junior ranking with 138 points, Ethan Huntley 2nd, 131 and Peter Johns 3rd 128. Andy Sayers won the Senior handicap in 27:44 with Ian Clements 2nd, 26:25; Flo Swann 3rd, 22:51; Craig Tiley 4th, 29:54 and Alan Mor-bey 5th, 25:55.

Alan Morbey leads the Senior rankings with 128 points with Angela Kerr 2nd, 116 and Tim Sibley 3rd, 114.

All is now set for the final round in December.

HONITON RC with Judy Davey

HONITON Running Club had an excellent turnout on Sunday, 6th November for the Castle Drogo 10 mile off-road run.

Alasdair Moffet was first back for Honiton finishing 34th in 1 hour 15 minutes. Rod Inglis followed coming 61st in 1:22 with Richard Harris hot on his heels coming 67th 39 seconds later.

Mark Dallyn fell and dislocated his finger but picked himself up and posted a good position of 70th in 1:23 before spending the rest of the afternoon in A & E. Steve Davey was just two places and six seconds behind.

New member Gavin Rice came 91st in 1:25 ahead of Roger Saunders who came 100th in 1:27.

Judy Davey led the ladies home having had a battle throughout with her daughter Jo. Judy came 128th in 1:30:47 with Jo two places and 10 seconds later.

Pippa Westall finished 143rd in 1:33, Nicola Greenland 168th in 1:37, Asilah Jarraid 177th in 1:39, Linda Pike 182nd in 1:40, Rachel Hennessy 257th in 1:54. Clare Melbourne and Juliet Hall ran together and were very pleased to finish just under two hours in 261st place.

Tony Peek had a very unfortunate run twisting his ankle and having to stop for it to be strapped up. This set him back long enough but then on the final leg he managed to take a wrong turn meaning he did an extra ½ mile. After limping the last five miles back he finished 279th in 2:09. There were 297 finishers.

On the same day, David Perkins ran the Grand Pier Half Marathon in Weston-super-mare. David's finished in 1:48:30. His quest to break 1:45 goes on in 2017!

Parker on pole

AFTER rain in the week there was a little more flow on the river Isle for the nine Ilminster AA members on Sunday and some great weights were recorded.

Steve Parker had the top weight with seven chub for 18lb 7oz from peg 109 on the pole with maggot hook bait.

Adie Bishop was second with a net of quality roach weighing 15lb 10z on the pole and caster from peg 126 at Isle Brewers and Jamie Rich was third with loads of small dace, chublets and gudgeon for 12lb 6oz from peg 120.

Next up is round four of the V.E.S. Precision League is on Sunday, November 20th and the draw is at Upper Coxes between 8.30 and 9am.

Stone is new Seniors captain

HONITON with John Pawley

LAST week's mixed competition was a Team Stableford. Teams of four went out, with the best lady's and the best man's scores to count.

With a score of 82 points, the winners were Cherry & James Liell with Sue & Paul Ritchie. Second, with 76 Were Liz Wood, Rob Sexton, Lesley Farley & Max Pipe.

On a very windswept course, a few ladies played the monthly Stableford qualifier.

The rest decided to just put some holes together for a round of their Winter Eclectic.

The qualifier result saw Ann Trayling win Silver division on 28 points with Henrietta Bradshaw next on 26. Bronze One winner was Liz Rogers with 31 followed by Stephani Barnes (25) and Sharon Rouse (24) next, on count-back from Ann Desmoullins.

The Bronze 2 winner was Jan Portlock with 24, ahead of Di Wall (23).

On Friday Armistice Day was recognised by the club with the sounding of the horn for the two minutes silence – when all play on the course was stopped.

Around 60 seniors played an individual Stableford competition that was also coupled with the first round of the winter Eclectic.

Jim Wallis not only won Division One with 38 points but also carded the only two which netted him 38 golf balls!

A handicap reduction back to 10 has followed, and to cap it all, he was presented with the Centenary Salver for the best cumulative score over four rounds of Summer Medal competitions.

His total score of 277 was well ahead of his competitors and he was presented with the trophy by Alan Pollock.

In Jim's wake were Bill Eaton and John Fleetwood, both with 36 points, while Mike Stroud and Dave Maggs followed with 33, all separated by count-back.

Mike Sennitt triumphed in Division Two, also with 38 points, earning him a handicap reduction. Bob Cockett was next with 35 points, Bill Phillips was third with 33, John Pawley fourth with 31 and Tom Stanton 30, completed the winners.

AXE CLIFF with Peter Motson

THE Men's section played the first round of their Winter League, Stableford format.

The winner was Alan Kenworthy with 38 points. In 2nd on count-back was Anthony Helliier and in 3rd was Stuart Mackie, both with 37pts. There were two 2s recorded by, Anthony Hell and Ian Burraston. In the November Medal, Division One was won by Paul Clode with a net 66. In 2nd was Craig Trivett with 69.

The Division Two winner was Steve Bond with a net 69 and in 2nd place was Alan Cooper with 72. There were two 2s recorded by Dave Morgan and Stuart Mackie.

The Ladies section played the annual Courtesy Cup competition between the Seniors and Ladies.

The Ladies received nine courtesy shots this year and went on to win three of the games and drew the other two. So next year the Ladies will only receive eight shots.

The winner of Seniors' section November Stableford was Rob Heard (hc 15) with 39 points, second was Bill Polley (16) with 37, third place went to Peter Hornsby (15) with 36 and fourth was Neil Moorcraft (18) also with 36. Alan Vincent, Tony Strong and Rob Heard (2) all carded 2s.

CRICKET ST THOMAS

with Bert Robinson

THIRTY eight Seniors entered a 4Ball Better ball Competition last Monday.

Result; 1st John Wandless & Robin Flower 41 points, 2nd Richard Forster & Maurice Arnold 40, 3rd Barrie Heath & Trevor Dobson 39.

The strong North wind hampered the 27 golfers who entered the all three to count stableford competition last Wednesday.

Result; 1st Malcolm Roy; Andy Beale & George Wallace 100 points, 2nd Ian Fielder; Nicky Hodder & Robin Flower 89, 3rd Mick Aldridge; Richard Hall & Nick Gabb 88.

A 15-hole three-man Texas Scramble was organised on Friday afternoon.

Results; 1st Stuart Pope; Bill Hillson & Rod Stevens 47.67, 2nd Alan Davis; Keith Branchflower & Ian Fielder 48.85, 3rd Nick George; Stuart Seery & Mark Cording 49.70.

Off the course, the Seniors held their AGM.

Nick Hill handed over the Captaincy for 2017 to Roger Stone. The new Vice Captain will be Barrie Heath.

The retiring Captain stated that during the last 12 months the Seniors have run a series of events to raise money for Alzheimer's Research UK, the last of which was a charity breakfast hosted by local solicitors Scott Rowe at the Cricket St Thomas Golf Club. Scott Rowe generously added £280 to the £4,500 that had already been raised by the members.

Workies hit by Pike ton

BEN Pike's 100 points in his second frame gave Honiton Wonderers another clean sweep to put them well clear at the top of the league table.

Colyton TC are performing well and beat Sidmouth Cons, but are still trailing last season's champions.

A re-grading of the players from the Conservative Club at Sidmouth should enable them to make their mark on the lower members of the league in the next few weeks.

Results (Nov 8th); Colyton TC 5+0 Sidmouth Cons 1+2, Honiton WMC 0+0 Honiton Wonderers 6+0, Chard Casuals 2+0 Colyton ExCons 4+0.

Breaks: Paul Cordwell 30, Ben Pike 41.

Backs shine but Chard edged out in basement battle

Midsomer Norton 13 Chard 7

South West Div 1

THIS was a must-win game for both sides as they struggle to get away from the foot of the table.

But in the end, despite the closeness of the score line, even the most ardent of Chard supporters would concede that the hosts deserved their win.

Chard won the toss and elected to play up the slope in the opening half knowing that if the scores were fairly even at half time they would have a chance of getting the win they so badly needed.

They were under attack from the off and found themselves pinned back inside their own 22 area for long periods.

The home side took an early lead from a straight forward Ben Taylor penalty after only five minutes.

Taylor should have doubled the lead soon after with another penalty but pulled his kick wide.

Chard were really under the cosh and only some superb defensive tackling kept the hosts at bay.

Unusually, the Chard forwards were really struggling to impose themselves and were only able to win a minimum amount of ball.

With half an hour gone Chard had hardly got out of their own half but they caught Norton cold with a superb attack which was started by Ben Stead and followed by a lovely scissors – and Matt Tinley got the touch down and Chard led 3-7 completely against the run of play.

They held this lead until half time and it was expected they would go on and win the game with the advantage of the slope.

Chard had several good opportunities to win possession close to the Norton line but the forwards had a day to forget and continued to fail to win their own ball at both scrum and lineout.

It really was a hard and bruising battle up front and Chard were not helped by some injuries and not having a full quota of replacements which meant that they did not have a full team on the pitch at times.

Taylor added another penalty and then converted a try from Tass Edgell which clinched the 13-7 victory.

The Chard backs looked a better outfit in this game but for the first time this season the forwards were unable to match their opponents

Next Saturday Chard are away at Bridgwater (2.30pm ko).

CHARD 2ND 20 WIVELISCOMBE 2ND 10

Somerset Division 2 South

CHARD took a 13-point interval lead with Connor Moon and Liam Mustchin both scoring tries and Sam

Moulard kicking a penalty goal.

In the second half Graydon and Woodward scored tries for Wivey but these came after another try for Chard scored by Billy Biss which was converted by Moulard.

Next Saturday Chard entertain Bridgwater (2.30pm).

FROME 3RD 57 CHARD 3RD 0

Somerset Division 3 south

CHARD travelled to Frome with just 13 players to play against a team that had so far failed to win a game, but with Frome not having a 1st or 2nd xv game, their team was somewhat stronger than normal!

Chard tried to borrow some players to make up their team but sadly the spirit of rugby was missing! Next week the Chard 3rds are away at Wells (2.15pm ko).

FRAMPTON COTTERELL 19 CHARD 15

Somerset Colts League

THIS was a very even game with both sides scoring three tries, the only difference between the sides was the fact that the home side managed to convert two of their tries.

Chard try scorers were Adam Moore, Matt James and Emile Szydelko.

Chard currently have no scheduled game next weekend.

◆ SPEEDSTERS: Over 100 drivers and enthusiasts gathered at Wiscombe House to celebrate the success of the leading competitors in the 2016 Bridge Tyres and Wheel Point S Wiscombe Park Hillclimb Championship. After a hard fought season encompassing nine qualifiers Anthony Wright took the premier award and a cheque for £300 in his turbo-charged four wheel drive Audi A3. The former circuit racer amassed a points total of 90.08 to defeat second placed and reigning champion Ian Ingleheart. The Mercedes Benz master technician took his Westfield SEI to a tad over two points in arrears of the new champion and collected the Eric Moxom Memorial Trophy for his efforts.
